TERRE HAUTE FIRE

The Worst Conflagration in the History of the Thriving Little City.

LOSS OVER ONE MILLION DOLLARS

Seven Large Concerns and Several Smaller Ones Destroyed by the Flames and Falling Walls.

Several Persons Were Burned and Injured By Jumping From Windows—None of Them Will Die—Indiansapolis Sends Assistance.

THE HAVEN & GEDES, Ind., Dec. 20.—The worst fire in the history of Terre Haute took place Monday night, causing a loss of $1,000,000. The blaze started in the big show windows of the Havens & Geddes Co., wholesale and retail dealers in dry goods and notions. The cause is not definitely known, but it is supposed that a short electric wire set afire with which the window blinds down were decorated, and before the blaze could be extinguished spread to the decorations of evergreens in the store, and the building was wrapped in flames in an incredibly short space of time.

The following firms are the losers: Havens & Geddes, $400,000 loss on stock and $100,000 in buildings; Breining & Miller, furniture, $25,000; Pixley & Co., hardware, $15,000; W. C. Moore Co., wholesale, $100,000; Albrecht & Co., general dry goods, $150,000 on stock and $40,000 on buildings; United States Baking Co., $80,000; Thorman & Schloss, clothiers, $50,000. A number of small concerns were utterly annihilated in the fall of the rear wall of the Havens & Geddes wholesale house, and the loss in this case will more than bring the total loss up to over the $1,000,000 mark.

The fire started at 8:30 o'clock when half the employees of the establishment were at their homes for supper. There is a force of 300 or more in the retail department of the establishment and had the entire force been present the loss of life would have been frightful.

As it is Kate Maloney, a clerk in the motion picture department, was at the point of death. She sprang from a window, was severely injured, but sustained injuries from which she will die.

Mrs. Lucia Ferguson, a clerk in the same department, jumped just before Miss Maloney but was caught by some men who were watching for her.

She is internally injured but will recover.

Louis Kramer, the trumper, who was in the show window when the fire started, is frightfully burned about the head and arms.

Later—Two bodies were found in the ruins of the Fort Adam's fire Tuesday morning.

FIRE AT FT. ADAMS

The Blaze Communicated to a Gun Shed Containing Powder, Explodes.

ARTILLERYMAN SULLIVAN KILLED.

Eight Other Members of the Seventh Artillery Were Seriously Wounded by the Explosion.

ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY HORSES in the Stables Were Taken Out in Safety—Another Body Found in the Ruins—Loss Small.

NEWPORT, R. I., Dec. 20.—Fire which broke out Monday night at Fort Adams in the stables of Light Battery F, 4th artillery, not only destroyed the stables, but communicate to a neighboring gun shed containing some powder, and an explosion which killed fellow private Sullivan, of Battery A, was seriously injured. Private L. T. Stevens, of the 1st Co., R. I. Artillery, Battery A; Private John Mervin, Battery H; Privates S. Wal, Battery A; Salter, Battery A; T. Power, Battery A; J. N. Lanigan, Battery A, and H. Clay, Battery H, received painful burns. All belonged to the 7th artillery.

The fire was caused by the explosion of gunpowder in the southwest wing of the stable, which had ignited the straw and spread rapidly throughout the building. One of the sentries gave the alarm by firing his rifle, and in a few minutes the entire garrison was fighting the flames.

There were 150 horses in the stables when the fire broke out, but all were taken out. While the soldiers were doing their utmost to get the horses out they found a new and almost without warning, the fire had taken a number of the soldiers into the flames. All were rescued save Sullivan, whose body was horribly burned and mangled. The financial loss is small.

Later—Two bodies were found in the ruins of the Fort Adam's fire Tuesday morning.

COMMISSIONER'S SALARIES.

THE QUESTION OF THE COMPENSATION OF THE MEMBERS AND OFFICERS IS ENTIRELY IN THE HANDS OF THE PRESIDENT.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Inquiry was made at the state department Monday in regard to the report that Judge Day and Mr. Whitelaw Reid are each to receive $100,000 for their services as members of the Spanish peace commission and that the officers of the commission are to receive compensation on the same liberal scale. At the state department, however, it was stated Monday in more positive terms that the question of the compensation of the members and officers of the peace commission is entirely in the hands of the president of the United States, and as far as known, he has not indicated to anybody his plans in the matter. Although disclaiming knowledge on the subject, the opinion is expressed that it is exceedingly improbable any member of the commission will receive anything approaching $100,000 for his services.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE AT BALDWINSVILLE, N. Y.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Dec. 20.—Baldwinsville, located 12 miles north of this city, was visited by a disastrous fire Monday. The fire, which started in a second story, spread rapidly and now is in the city hospital. The fire department worked admirably and there were many narrow escapes among the men. Several of the firemen in a precarious condition from burns and the effects of the stifling smoke, and one died.

When firemen first came to the scene, the girls who had been watching from the window of the New York Marionette Ferguson girls appeared at the second-story window. The girls were panic-stricken and were in momentary danger of going down with the floor. Peters sprang through the door with his coat over his head and dashing through the flame and smoke reached the window at which the girls appeared, and after talking with them swam out from the ledge and dropped. His example was followed by the two girls.

A heroical act on the part of a man named Peters, a travelling salesman from Chicago for the Baldwin music house, called forth cheers from the crowd watching the flames. When the fire first started, the girls were standing in the second and saw the Marionette Ferguson girls appear at the second-story window. The girls were panic-stricken and were in momentary danger of going down with the floor. Peters sprang through the door with his coat over his head and dashing through the flame and smoke reached the window at which the girls appeared, and after talking with them swam out from the ledge and dropped. His example was followed by the two girls.

Andrew Thomas of Lexington, Ky., is lying at the city hospital probably fatally hurt. He was assisting in the removal of an injured fireman from the ruins of the Albright building, when a heavy burning timber fell, striking him on the head and breast and pinning him to the ground.

The firemen were drawn out and over a wagon and engine on a special train, which made the distance between Indianapolis and Terre Haute, 73½ miles, in 61 minutes. Marshall and Brazil, Ind., sent assistance.

Filmor Smith, colored fireman, was caught beneath a falling wall at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning and received injuries which prove fatal. He was 25 years old.

A 150-Tuesday morning East Madison, one of the clerks who jumped from the second-story widow, and Andy Thomas, of Lexington, Ky., a spectator, died from injuries received during the progress of the fire.
